Dear Jenny

Yes, we have seen the Guardian article. Mr Sheerman has been very active in putting down PQs on home education recently. It remains to be seen whether there will be any Parliamentary debate as he wishes in the immediate future.

I will be coming on the 26th February and am happy to join a panel discussion, although how much I will be able to say about DfE's position will depend on what is happening at that time. Tracey is, I am afraid, unable to come up to London on this occasion.

Thanks. Perhaps you will let me know the actual venue for the launch in due course.

Dear Stephen,

I hope that you have had a good Christmas and New Year?

If you recall I invited you both to come along to the launch of the AEHEP which takes place on February 26th between 1.00 and 3.00pm at Westminster. We really appreciate that you have put the date in the diary and hope that you can join a small panel to discuss DfE view and take some questions from the floor, we anticipate talk around 5 minutes.

Have you seen the article in the Guardian on 31st December where Barry Sheerman has called for a debate on state of home education?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes,

Jenny
