

Birmingham EHE Location FOI Response January 2013

The Elective Home Education Team (EHE) of Birmingham local authority currently sits within the School Admissions and Pupil Placements Service (within the directorate of Children, Young People and Families)

The budget allocation would come within 'other support services' as part of the total staffing budget allocated to the School Admissions and Pupil Placement Service.

The current total allocation for EHE staff is £91,077.