

South Gloucestershire EHE Spend FOI Response January 2013

Unfortunately, we are unable to provide as full a response to your request regarding elective home education (EHE) as you would hope for. This is because a breakdown of the costs is not recorded. However, we are able to provide the following information which we hope you find of use:-

The Elective Home Education and Children Missing Education spend in 2011-2012 £67,930 which covers the post of Education Officer, Exclusions, CME & EHE salary as well as the 0.4 teacher, supply costs and travel expenses.

In addition to the above the Welfare Liaison Officer for Ethnic Minority and Traveller Achievement Service spent approx 40 hours supporting joint EHE monitoring visits to Traveller families and 15 hours at EHE related meetings during academic year 2011/12.
