

Swindon EHE Spend FOI Response January 2013

There is one Education Welfare Officer responsible for Elective Home Education in Swindon. There is no budget for provisions for home educators. The amount spent on home education services works out at approximately £20,000, which would include all costs including administrative costs.