

Wiltshire EHE Spend FOI Response February 2013

Elective home education costs are not separated from the overall budget for education outside school.

Education Welfare Officers 24,715. There are two Education Welfare officers assigned for half of their work programme who monitor and support electively home educated children's provision.

Travellers' Education Service 123,971

Online Learning 45,199

Children who are at home or unable to attend school for medical or other reason) can be taught via the internet as part of a small group with a 'remote' teacher. This refers to provision for children with health needs and not elective home educated children.

Education Other than at school (Medical Needs) 20,516

Total 214,401